Product details

Archie Proudfoot revisited the instantly recognisable sign he painted for White City House, based on the iconic BBC test card. The original work, Test Card F, hangs in the lobby of our west London House and is one of the first things you see as you walk through our doors.

Kate Bryan, Soho House's Head of Collections, says, 'Archie's work was easily one of the most popular pieces we've ever put in a House. We've had lots of TV personalities on the BBC talking to us about it. He's been able to make a new version with Jealous Gallery to create a fantastic finish. It's great for anyone who's interested in broadcasting, the history of modernism or loves White City House.'
