Product details

With its subtle, curved corners and cushioned armrests, Reya's Mid Century style is influenced by the furniture at DUMBO House in Brooklyn. Slender turned beech legs lift it off the floor to create a sense of space, while the cushions have a foam core that's wrapped in feather and down making them extra comfy and robust. Handcrafted in Long Eaton, Derbyshire by a family firm of furniture makers, each sofa bears the signature of the specialist upholsterer who made it.
