Product details

The Alesia glassware collection lends a vintage-inspired aesthetic to any tablescape. Mouth blown to create the exaggerated optic detail, our set of four Alesia hiball tumblers are ideal for serving a long refreshing drink. A straight-sided handcrafted optic pattern nods to 1950s brutalist architecture, whilst the deep amber colouring accentuates the mid-century aesthetic. The perfect addition for entertaining as well as casual dining.

- Set of four glass tumblers
- Mouth blown glass
- Hiball design
- Smoky amber finish
- Crafted in Thailand
- Inspired by Soho House Rome
