Product details

Our Huxley crystal glassware has a clean-cut look and heavyweight feel to elevate your drinking experience, taking inspiration from Little House Mayfair. Crafted in Slovenia by Rogal ka Glassworks, this factory has been producing crystalware since 1927. Eastern European crystal is also known for its brilliant clarity, as this collection demonstrates.

The unique process is achieved by designing simple forms, which are mouth blown and then hand cut with a tight diamond pattern to the lower half and bottom of each piece. As light passes through, the crystal is brought to life by refractions that create a myriad colours and brilliant sparkle. Featured are this set of four gin glasses to add to your at-home bar or cart.
