Product details

Our Marius bedside table is characteristic of the mixed material finishes found in the bedrooms of Soho House Barcelona. Crafted from European oak, this piece is complemented with a honed Arabescato Corchia marble top sourced from Italy. Relief geometric pattern drawer fronts highlight the craftsmanship behind this unique design, with hammered antique brass handles adding another material contrast. This wider style of the two features one classic top drawer and a taller bottom drawer for larger storage items, resting on a chamfered rectangular base.
