Product details

The design of our Mercer sideboard mirrors the interiors found in our lounge spaces at Soho House Amsterdam. Reclaimed French oak is combined with steel and antique brass accents to highlight the natural grain of the timber while adding a contemporary twist. Any splits only serve to show the natural characteristic of the oak. When opened, two adjustable shelves inside allow for ample storage space.

- Solid French oak sideboard
- Statement brass and steel accents
- Splits in the timber are natural characteristic of reclaimed French oak
- Two adjustable internal shelves
- Cable cut outs in back panels
- Inspired by Soho House Amsterdam
