Product details

The sleek surface of this coffee table allows the brown michelangelo marble veining to shine when it catches the light. The marble can be found in the mountains of Balochistan, a province located in the south-west of Pakistan. Characterised by a screw-like base, this solid-oak side table mirrors the styles found at 76 Dean Street. Keep it bedside, or nestle it next to a sofa for a homely finish.

- Round marble top
- Screw-style base
- Michelangelo marble inset top
- Intricate veining of the marble makes each piece entirely unique
- Gold features with white veining
- As seen on the counter top in Westbourne Grove
- Inspired by 76 Dean Street
