Product details

More than just touchably soft, the Jonas armchair's tactile chenille upholstery is spun from recycled wool and acrylic yarns reconstituted from the fashion industry, with sustainable Tencel Lyocell sourced from the fast-growing eucalyptus tree. While the solid oak frame and handwoven natural rope play with subtly contrasting textures, the sculpted arms, capped feet and antique brass details echo the styles seen throughout Soho White City.

- Solid oak chair
- Upholstered in recycled materials
- Natural rope seat
- Sculpted arm
- Antique brass detailing
- Capped feet
- Removable back and seat cushion
- Inspired by White City House
