Product details

Inspired by our upcoming House, Soho House Manchester, the Darwin dining table has been crafted from solid red oak with an oak veneer marquetry top to achieve a checkerboard finish. The extendable design accommodates for more guests as and when needed, seating six to eight when unextended and eight to ten when extended, with angular legs to maximise leg room below. Finished with solid edge lipping and bullnose edge detail, this dining table is a subtle way of incorporating pattern into the room while offering versatility and flexibility.
